WILLIAM SULZER SCRAPBOOK CHECKLIST

On microfilm--original at State Historical Society of Wisconsin. This scrapbook contains correspondence (1894-1923) of William Sulzer, attorney, New York State and National Legislator, and New York State Governor. Also, miscellaneous materials pertaining to the American Party. (1 reel negative microfilm.)

Pamphlet - Watchman, What of the Night?, published by American Party in support of Sulzer (55 pp.).

Copy of a letter from W. S. to William Church Osborn, Chairman of the Demo. State Committee, (Apr. 29, 1914). W. S. asks Osborn to support a genuine direct primary law (which he says Osborn had previously refused to do), by using his influence to introduce such a law in the extraordinary session of the legislature. W. S. outlines his own proposed amendments to the inadequate direct primary law passed in 1913, and also asks Osborn to move up the 1914 Primary Registration day, which falls of the Jewish Day of Atonement so "hundreds of thousands of Jewish citizens shall not be disenfranchised."

Letter from Osborn to W. S. (May 8, 1914), stating that his position has been in favor of additional legislation for the present direct primary law.

News Clipping re National Memorial to Thomas Paine, by Olin J. Ross of the Columbus, Ohio, Bar (orig. a speech given by Ross on Jan. 29, 1923).

Elsie Hess to W. S. (Merrick, L. I., March 25, 1923).

Vivian V. Walters to W. S. (March 26, 1923).

L. E. Whicher (Pres. Cori Gold Mines Co., N. Y.) to W. S. (March 26, 1923); re W. S. depositing his stock in escrow.

Copy of letter from W. S. to Hon. E. Henry Lacombe, U. S. Circuit Judge (Albany, July 6, 1913). A letter thanking L. for his political support, and commenting that "the Curtis story is merely a smoke screen of the bosses," and asserting "no threats shall deter me from. . .carrying out. . .my campaign pledges to the people."

W. S. to Osborn (May 9, 1914) re direct primary bill.

Typescript of a speech by W. S. (c. 1914). He states he will again run as Governor of New York State (4 pp., but other items occur between them on microfilm).

Pamphlet opposing repeal of direct primary law (reprinted by Direct Primary Comm. of N. Y.) Consists of speech by W. S. at Catskill, N. Y., Courthouse, June 6, 1913.

Samuel Bell Thomas to W. S. (March 26, 1923).

Platform of the American Party (1 p.).

SULZER CHECKLIST

List of names of American Party "helpers." (5 pp., but other items occur between them on microfilm.)

Candidates for List of names, and home and business addresses of American Party candidates for candidates for President, Vice-President, and N. Y. S. offices including Governor and legislators (Sept. 1, 1916, 1 p.).

Reprint of letter to the editor of Knickerbocker Press, (from Knickerbocker Press of Aug. 31, 1918). This letter from George W. Dennison praises W. S. and criticises Tammany.

Broadside (?) from American Party urging Charles E. Whitman for N. Y. S. Governor (Nov. 4, 1916).

Copy of letter from W. S. to George W. Beakley (?), (Dec. 27, 1922), re the history of the Long Sault Charter, and describing his own opposition to it while Governor. (2 pp.).

Pamphlet--Lest We Forget! issued by American Party, N. Y. It includes a statement supporting Charles Evans Hughes for Pres., and Whitman for Gov. (October 9, 1916), and other items, many re Sulzer; and the American Party Platform for 1916 (47 pp.).

Typescript of speech by W. S. (N. D., 2 pp.).

Letter to W. S. from James H. Perkins, Pres. Farmer's Loan and Trust Co., N. Y. (March 30, 1923.) re services the company can render Americans traveling in Europe.

Typescript of a poem, "Soliloquy--By Justice" (1 p.).

Letter to W. S. from Frank E. Xavier, ed. of The Yonkers Herald (Mar. 29, 1923), asking W. S. for his opinion concerning the length of term and election time of N. Y. S. Governors.

Copy of W. S.'s reply to Xavier (Mar. 31, 1923).

Letter circular from W. S. on American Party Stationery (Sept. 12, 1914) to enrolled Progressives, asking them to attend Progressive Primary that month and to vote for him as Gov., so that he can continue his reform work.

Pamphlet--Charter and Rules and By-Laws of the American Party (15 pp.).

Clay Cunningham, business manager for Lincoln Memorial University, to W. S. (March 26, 1923).

Copy of letter from Sulzer to Cunningham (March 23, 1923).

SULZER CHECKLIST

Copy of letter from W. S. to Cornell Univ. (March 23, 1923), offering to donate correspondence and books to C. U. Library.

News Clipping, "Have Courage," a short statement signed by Sulzer, N. Y. C., Jan. 11, 1923.

A letter from Saul S. Myers, N. Y. attorney, to W. S. (March 28, 1923) re Mosher and Wallace, Bankrupts (4 typescript pp., but the 4th is separated from the first 3 by other items.).

Pamphlet--The Swastika, subtitled The Science of How to Get Rich, pub. by Swastika Science Society, N. Y., (I:1, June 1915). The introduction states that the S. S. S. "is organized . . . /to educate/ the people in Fundamental Economics . . . hence, How to Get Rich." Pamphlet compiled from newspaper clippings, one of them a May 1915 speech by W. S. on the economics of the liquor question; and other items including letters from Sulzer (22 pp.). Samuel Bell Thomas was Secretary of the S. S. S.

Letter from George B. Roane, President of the Templar Knights Commanders Assoc. (Jan. 23, 1923) to W. S. re an invitation to W. S. to speak for the group.

Copy of letter from W. S. to Hon. Frederick M. Davenport, Clinton, N. Y., (Sept. 10, 1914). Davenport was the other candidate besides W. S. for the Progressive's nomination for Governor in the primary. Sulzer suggests debates between the two to decide who should receive Progressive support.

Photograph of Sulzer, N. D.

W. M. Pixley, Seattle Attorney, to W. S. (March 26, 1923) re W. S.'s mining and lumber interests.

Letter (N. D.), incomplete, to W. S.

John Mack, Canada, to W. S., (December 22, 1922) re Canadian mines.

Letter from John McKee (Chairman) and A. C. Lasswell (Secretary) of Prohibition Party of N. Y., to Col. Theodore Roosevelt (Sept. 1, 1914). They state the Prohibition Party and T. R. both desire to end boss rule in N. Y., and that the re-election of Sulzer, "the only genuine Progressive in this crisis," can accomplish this. They ask T. R. to help them insure Sulzer's election.

Copy of a letter from W. S. to Judge John Ford, N. Y. C. (March 21, 1923). W. S. promises his help in passing Ford's bill against obscene literature.

Copy of letter from W. S. to Olin J. Ross, Columbus, Ohio (Feb. 8, 1923), asking him to print his speech urging a national memorial for Thomas Paine, and praising Paine.

Easter Card to W. S. from Elsie Hess (N. D.).

Typescript copy of a part of W.S.'s speech at the Progressive Club, Brooklyn, N.Y. (N.D.).

Notice of Appeal, the People of N.Y.S. on the Relation of William Sulzer against William Sohmer, Comptroller of the State of N.Y., and related items, such as the petition of W.S., and affidavits. (49 printed pp. including index).

Letter to W.S. from "Sister Anne" (his sister?), Orange, N.J. (N. D., apparently a 3 pp. letter but the order seems confused.)

Typescripts of pp. 2-4 of lists of W.S.'s record as a Progressive governor, state legislator, and national legislator. Part of W.S.'s campaign to win Progressive support to himself rather than to Frederick Davenport.

Letter to W.S. from Ernest Harvier, N.Y. (Mar. 29, 1923), "Neither McAdoo, Ford, or Cox will be seriously considered by the Democrats. The man they will nominate, in all probability, is Senator Ralston with Smith for Vice-President . . . Meanwhile, our Republican friends are slumbering at the political cross-roads."

Vivian V. Walters to W.S. (Mar. 29, 1922).

Edgar G. Jones, Baltimore, to W.S. (March 27, 1923) re W.S.'s stocks.

Percy Stickney Grant, Ascension Rectory, N.Y.C., to W.S. (Lent, 1923).
A letter of thanks for W.S.'s friendship during the writer's difficulties.

Rev. O.D. Ellett of the First Presbyterian Church, Manning, Iowa, to W.S. (March 26, 1923). "Our friend Phillipps . . . is mistaken as to a new party. The American Party had a good start. It met its Waterloo at St. Paul. The 'dry' organization did it. We are now in the struggle for law enforcement. This responsibility rests upon both parties alike. The new anti-papal party organized recently in St. Louis is nearer the mark."

News Clipping from New York Nation (pub. weekly by Nationalist Pub. Co., M.T. O'Reilly, Ed.). A column (N.D.) praising W.S. and stating that there is no doubt about his re-election to Congress.

W.G. Tanner (?), Seattle, to W.S. (Sept. 6, 1922). Re mining in Washington State area.

W.S. to Chester C. Platt, Madison, Wisconsin (Jan. 31, 1921). States his friends organized "American Party" to bring about his election as New York State Governor; explains why they chose the Prohibition Party nomination rather than the Democrat or Independent; says he opposed the 18th Amendment and Volstead Act but would have supported a high excise tax; and criticizes the above laws.

W.S. Edwards, Phoenix, Arizona, to W.S. (Jan. 26, Feb. 9, 1923) re some of W.S.'s financial transactions.

John P. Altgeld, Chicago, to Bernhard D. O'Connell, N. Y. C. (May 4, 1900), stating "I have a very high opinion of Mr. Sulzer and think he is making a brilliant record in Congress. So far as the Vice-Presidency is concerned, I have given that no attention and am not in a situation to do anything about it." (Above is the entire text of the letter.)

William V. Allen, Chairman of the U. S. Senate Committee on Forest Reservations and Protection of Game to W. S., Madison, Nebraska (Nov. 24, 1899). ". . . It is quite likely you will receive Robinson's vote for the Democratic leadership of the House. . . . I think if you would see Stark, Sutherland, and Neville from this state, it would be of value to you."

First page only of a letter to W. S. on stationery of Editorial Dept., Cosmopolitan Magazine, (Jan. 1, no year).

Willis J. Abbot, Ann Arbor, Michigan, to W. S. (Dec. 15, no year). Mentions his new job as manager of Press Bureau of Demo. Nat'l. Comm. and one of his policies, and comments, "I am glad you are making a fight on the money issue. I think it is sure to come up in the campaign and the action of the Democratic members who are acting with the Republicans will rise up to curse the party and them."
