WHITE (JOHN), Collector. White Family Papers, 1795-1922; 22 ft. Additional papers of Hugh White, William Pierrepont White, William Mansfield White, and William Constable Pierrepont [see 1945-1954 Reports], including extensive business and some personal correspondence; a great many legal papers, especially contracts and leases pertaining to property owned by the White family in Ann Arbor, Michigan, and northern New York State and by William Constable Pierrepont and others, for whom the Whites acted as agents or estate executors; numerous survey and other maps, and notebooks and worksheets of various surveyors, including Benjamin Wright, Charles H. Cross, J. Frost, and B. G. Robbins, covering surveys conducted in Jefferson, Oswego, and various other counties, dating back to 1795; other miscellaneous papers include plans and contract for a dam in Pulaski (1835), reprints of speeches, notes, statistical data, newspaper clippings, bills, receipts, canceled checks, copies of assessment rolls, account books, photographs, a deed record book, a diary (1883) of William Pierrepont White, and printed genealogies of the White and Mansfield families. Papers of William Pierrepont White relate to White's activities and/or interests in the Utica Traffic Bureau, Oneida Historical Society, Utica Drop Forge Tool Company, the Advisory Good Roads Commission, Citizens Trust Company of Utica, Aragon Mills, the Rome & Osceola Railroad, Pierrepont Gun Club, St. Lawrence Inn in Gouverneur; his position as Oneida County Superintendent of Roads; and to his interest in the tariff on metals and in taxation of personal property of manufacturers in Utica compared with surrounding towns. Papers of William Mansfield White pertain to his legal activities as an executor of the estates of William Constable Pierrepont and William C. White, including deed record book (1889-1922); his presidency of the Second National Bank of Utica; and his interest in Hamilton College alumni affairs. Hugh White's papers (c. 1901-1920), which cover his legal activities as agent, attorney, and executor of various estates, contain much correspondence relating to White family property in Ann Arbor; numerous contracts and other legal papers; and account books (1905-1914). The papers of William Constable Pierrepont include many leases, contracts, and other legal papers; statement of securities held for estate of Pierrepont, of which William Mansfield White and Gerritt H. Van Wagenen were executors; notes on life of Pierrepont; copy of will (1875); and correspondence with William C. Hill, his agent (1871). Included are correspondence and other papers concerning Jesse C. Bowen, L. D. Carr, Charles H. Cross, Mary B. Ellis, Mary P. Ethridge, Mary Hill, William H. Hill, Henry Hilton, William H. Hyde, W. S. Jones, William K. Mansfield, Charles L. Minor, Virginia C. Minor, Beatrice Muir, Dr. John Muir, Robert L. Niles, Charles T. Pease, Frederick W. Perry, H. E. Pierrepont, H. E. Pierrepont, Jr., Anna P. Van Wagenen, Gerritt H. Van Wagenen, Hubert Van Wagenen, Anna M. White, C. Carroll White, DeLancey P. White, Evelyn White, Ruth White, Benjamin Wright, Helen M. Wright, James Wright; The Employers' Association of Utica, Fort Schuyler Club, Interchangeable Tool Company, Kego Park Club, N.Y.S. Agricultural Society, Oswego & Rome Railroad, Rome & Osceola Railroad, Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railroad, Sandy Point Life Saving Station, Utica, Clinton & Binghamton Railroad, Utica Gas & Electric Company, Utica & Mohawk Railroad, Waterford & Cohoes Railroad Company, Watertown & Rome Railroad.
