Additions & Corrections

- 48 #2 John Austin married 31 May 1731, supposedly died in the Expedition against Crown Point in 1757; #4 John Austin died 16 or 17 Apr. 1752; #8 Robert Austin died before 1687, resided in Kings Town, R.I. 15 Sept. 1661. The positive proofs that Robert was the father of this family are lacking but the belief is thought to be well founded. #4 John is supposed to have married Mary, surname unknown. (Ref. E.A. Moore's book on Robert Austin, pages 11, 436 & 437).
- 63 In note bottom of page: Jennie K. Bean not Brown. She died 4 Mar. 1986.
- 64 In note at bottom: Barbara Miller married (2) Richard Eggleston 21 Dec. 1985 not 1986.
- 66 Under year 1777: Though it can't be proven as yet, it is thought that Isaiah Grinnell, born 1732, may have served in the battle of Bennington as an unenrolled member of Col. Simonds Berkshire County, Massachusetts Regiment. A lot of the farmers in the area were fighting for their homes and were never found to be on the official rolls. (Ref. A. L. Perry book, Williamstown & Williamstown College, 1899, pages 113, 114 & others).
- 67 Spouse of first child, Mercy Grinnell is James Simpson (1760-1834); at bottom: Sarah Grinnell not Austin.
- 70 Add to James Simpson-Mercy Grinnell family from p15, 1790 N.Y. State Census (1-2-2-0-0) and from 1800 census, Providence, Saratoga, N.Y. (1-0-0-1-0/2-1-0-1-0-0). Page 15 of the 1790 census is for Ballstown, Saratoga County.
- 71 Add under 16 August 1777 the location of the Battle of Bennington. It was located just east of Walloomsac on N.Y. Route 67 about 4 miles northeast of Hoosick Falls, N.Y. (Ref. Thurmeister's, Landmarks of the American Revolution in N.Y. State, 1972).
- 47 Patience Emory (Emery) was the great granddaughter of Anthony Emory who came to America from Romsey Hants, England, in 1635 and settled in Kittery, Maine. His daughter Rebecca Emory married first Robert Weymouth, second Thomas Sadler and third Daniel Eaton of Little Compton. A son of Rebecca by the second marriage, Joseph Sadler, assumed his mother's maiden name when he ran away to sea. He married Elizabeth Washburne, daughter of Philip and Elizabeth (Irish) Washburne of Bridgewater, Massachusetts. (Ref. B.F. Wilbour's Little Compton Families, 1967, page 308).
- 90 Add to index: BOBBETT, Alan, Christine (Renfro), Kimberly E. page 44
- 92 EDWARDS, Cecile, Jacqueline (FLEURY) page 41; EGGLESTON, Richard p92
- 93 GRINNELL, Betty p viii, 14, 30, 43; Norma E. p9, 14, 25, 44
