Patrons of Husbandry, New York State Grange.

Records, [ca. 1874]-1986.

~~244~~ 261 cubic ft. <sup>98</sup>/<sub>75</sub>

Summary: Records of defunct local Granges consist primarily of minute and roll books and treasurers' accounts, but also include drill manuals, program books, bylaws, degree records, quarterly reports to the State Grange, certificates, and records of a few Junior Granges. The records of about half of these Granges extend, usually continuously, over a period of fifty years or more; about ten percent extend, usually continuously, from the 1870s or 1880s to the 1960s or 1970s.

These records of defunct local organizations were returned to the state secretary in accordance with Grange regulations.

Restricted in part.

Findings aids: Unpublished guide.

Described in DOCUMENTATION NEWSLETTER, Vol. 1, No. 2, Fall 1975.
