The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Chapter 382.—An Act to establish Cornell University, and to appropriate to the income of the sale of public lands granted to this State by Congress, on the second day of July, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, all, to sustain the operations of nine hundred and eleven dollars of the several hundred and fifty-three thousand dollars then owing.

Done at Albany, this twenty-third day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America a hundred and seventeen.

S. B. White
Governor of the State.
