George Washington La Fayette, and the other Members of the Family of the late General LaFayette.

Washington, 27th June, 1834.

In compliance with the will of Congress, I transmit to you the joint resolutions of the two Houses, unanimously expressing the sensibility with which they received the intelligence of the death of General LaFayette, the friend of the United States, the friend of Washington, and the friend of Liberty; and I also assure you of the condolence of this whole Nation in the irreparable bereavement, which, by that event, you have sustained.
In complying with the request of Congress, I cannot omit the occasion of offering you my own condolence in the great loss you have sustained, and of expressing my admiration of the eminent virtues of the distinguished patriot whom it has pleased Providence to remove to his high reward.

I also pray you to be persuaded that your individual welfare and prosperity will always be with me, objects of that solicitude which the illustrious services of the great friend and benefactor of my country are calculated to awaken.

Andrew Jackson
M. George Washington La Fayette
